

“LUGGAGE HANDLE WRAP”

Planning your summer time travel and notice your black luggage looks just like everyone else's does? Use this soft handle cover not only ease the strain on your hands when carrying heavy items like the bag loaded down with all the souvenirs you couldn't resist, but to personalize your luggage to make it easier to find!

Skill Level: Beginner

Created by: Kelly Laws, Marketing Project Manager

Supplies:

Baby Lock Ellegante Sewing and Embroidery Machine

Luggage wrap embroidery design (download here)

Spool embroidery thread to match fabrics

All-purpose thread to match fabrics

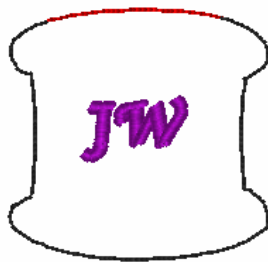

1/2 yard pre-quilted fabric

Baby Lock Cut-Away Stabilizer

Hook and Loop Tape

Instructions:

1. Download the luggage wrap embroidery design and transfer it to the machine.
2. In embroidery edit mode on the embroidery machine add your initials; so that the letters are centered within the luggage wrap design and just under 1" tall.

3. Hoop the cut-away stabilizer and pre-quilted fabric in the hoop and place the hoop on the machine.
4. Embroider the first outline.
5. Then skip ahead in the color selections to embroider your initials second.
6. Cut a piece of the pre-quilted material to cover the size of the embroidery design.
7. Place the cut piece of quilted fabric over the embroidery design so that right sides are facing.
8. Stitch the second outline. The second outline has an opening for turning at the top. You may choose to stitch the second outline again for added reinforcement.
9. When the embroidery is complete, remove the hoop from the machine and clip any remaining jump threads.
10. Remove the fabric from the machine and cut out around the outline leaving approximately ¼”.
11. Clip all the way around the design to help it turn. Turn the wrap right side out and Press.
12. Fold in the top opening and stitch the opening closed.
13. Attach a strip of hook and loop tape to the back of the top and the front of the lower edge so that they will meet when wrapped around a handle.
14. Now you are ready to travel in comfort and style!
